You are welcome to join us at the MAFE's General Session
Friday, January 8, 2010 beginning at 1:00 p.m. to hear:

BAXTER BLACK

Keynote Speaker for 2010 MAFE Convention

Baxter Black will be joining us as the Keynote Speaker for the 125th MAFE Convention January 8, 2010.

He can shoe a horse, string a bob wire fence and bang out a Bob Wills classic on his flat top guitar. Cowboy poet, ex-veterinarian and sorry team roper, he has more hair around his lip than his head. Raised in New Mexico, spent his workin' life in the mountain west tormenting cows, now he travels the country tormenting cowboys.

Since 1982, Baxter Black has been rhyming his way into the national spotlight, and now stands as the best selling cowboy poet in the world. He's written several books (including one rodeo novel and its sequel), recorded over a dozen audio and video tapes, CDs and DVDs, and has achieved notoriety as a syndicated columnist, radio commentator, and more recently with his TV program "Out There" on RFD-TV. From the Tonight Show and PBS to NPR and the NFR, Baxter's wacko verse has been seen and heard by millions. His works are prominently displayed in both big city libraries and small town feed stores.

Plan on attending the 125th MAFE Convention January 7-9, 2010 and hear
Baxter Black.

Convention dates: January 7-9, 2010 – 125th Annual Convention;
January 13-15, 2011; January 12-14, 2012; January 10-12, 2013; January 9-11, 2014 at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel & DeVos Place, Grand Rapids MI.
